

Allianz-AJC Third Generation Initiative

IN AFFILIATION WITH GERMANY CLOSE UP

Berlin and Munich

June 22-July 1, 2012

AJC and Allianz SE, one of Germany's leading financial services companies, in cooperation with Germany Close-Up, have embarked on a 5-year groundbreaking cooperation to bring young American Jewish professionals on an annual study trip to Germany along with German peers working at Allianz. Together, this unique group will explore German-Jewish history, including corporate history during World War II, and will meet with top-level government representatives, business leaders, scholars, and leaders of Germany's Jewish community.

We anticipate that this trip will inspire, as it has in past years, an important conversation between the American Jewish and German participants about the political and personal legacy of the Holocaust and Never Again.

Join us for this unique week-plus-Shabbat experience which will focus on the German past and present and challenges and opportunities in the German-Jewish relationship today and in the future. Participants will be encouraged to become active participants in the ongoing German-Jewish relationship.

Cost: $600 (includes international travel, hotel, and most meals on the ground in Germany)

Eligibility: Must live in Atlanta, Chicago, New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco or Washington, DC and must be between 25 and 39-years-old
